

TWO DRUNKS SENT
TO JAIL BY MAYORChief Snider Orders Drivers to Put on Chains or Take Cars Off Streets.

Charles Blake and John Hughes were the only persons arrested by the city police force since court was held yesterday morning. Blake was picked up at 3:30 yesterday afternoon in Water street by Policeman Porter on a charge of being intoxicated. Hughes was caught at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Policeman Downey in Water street.

The pair entered pleas of guilty when arraigned before Acting Mayor W. E. Arnett in police court this morning. Acting Mayor Arnett imposed fines of $5 and costs in each case. The men were unable to pay and were ordered to jail for five days.

Due to the slippery condition of the streets this morning, which made automobile travel very difficult and dangerous, Chief of Police D. Snider ordered all members of the day force to order all auto and truck drivers to put on chains or take their cars or trucks off the streets.

A number of minor automobile accidents were reported to head quarters during the early morning hours, but after most of the cars and trucks complied with the chief's order fewer mishaps were reported.

JACK DAW IN HOOPLAND

Drawings by Leslie Eitor

Story by Hal Cochran.

Chapter 14

"Why that looks like a camel," shouted Jack. "It's returned the animal trainer. 'And, if you think he is funny, just look at that parrot hoop.' And Jack was about the funniest he had ever seen. Next came monkeys and many other animals.

Finally the cage of the huge elephant was reached. "This fellow is so strong he breaks his cage," said the trainer, "and we have to build him a new one every week." This surprised Jack, and then he was even more surprised to see a little band of hoops roll right up and enter the cage.

"Why don't you keep them out of there?" shouted Jack. "If the elephant is as strong as you say, he will surely hurt them." But, while the animals' trainer just smiled, the little band of brave hoops rolled up and down the elephant's back and did lots of funny things. (Continued.)

The operation was performed more than two weeks ago, and while Mr. Thomas is recovering, he is still confined to his room at the family home in Saxman street.

$200,000 LOSS CAUSED

ALTOONA, Pa., Dec. 24.—The loss of more than $200,000, was caused by fire which swept five business buildings in Juniata, a suburb, today. While the firemen were making the connections, dynamite was used in an effort to stop the progress of the flames.

WARNING ISSUED TO GAS PATRONS TODAY

As a result of the tragedy at the home of Enrico Genovese in Spruce street on Sunday, when a mother and young baby died from the effects of gas fumes, R. K. Tallant, manager of the gas department of the M. P. & L. Co., has issued a warning to all users of gas in Fairmont to see to it that their fixtures are properly installed and that proper combustion is provided. This will reduce the danger of the formation of carbon monoxide gas to the minimum, because the proper mixture does not cause this deadly gas.

Mr. Tallant warns against inexperienced people making their own installation of gas fixtures. He also suggests that gas fires be turned off at night in sleeping rooms, but if the rare allowed to burn a window should be opened sufficiently to give plenty of ventilation.

Today's Blunder

Corrected

By JOHN S. SCOTT
Postmaster, Fairmont
Your mail and your neighbor's mail is delayed if you have no mail receptacle at your door with your name plainly written thereon. To eliminate unnecessary delay, the Post Office Department has ruled that carrier services will not be extended to any new building not equipped with a suitable receptacle, and that when a patron changes his residence he will be required to provide a mail box at his new address before being accorded delivery service. All patrons will be expected to have a proper mail receptacle, preferably a sign in the door, before January 1, 1933.

The failure to provide a mail receptacle not only tends to inconvenience the patron himself, but is an unnecessary hardship on the carrier. If the carrier has to wait at a door, even if only two or three minutes, and has to do it several times in a block, it means that he has to work that much harder to complete his deliveries. If the people understood this, for the carriers sake, if for no other reason, they would provide a box.
